

Eating Disorder Support Group

Constantly thinking about food, weight, or your body?

- Do you constantly feel dissatisfied with your body?
- Do you ever deny or hide your eating behavior?
- Do you compulsively exercise?
- Do you ever vomit after a meal to “control” your weight?
- Do you find yourself emotionally eating or binging on a regular basis?
- Do you feel preoccupied with numbers, counting calories, or the size of your clothes?
